EDITORIAL

A CORNISH CAROL is not simply a Christmas Hymn, but more like a species of folk-song, and being set to music by comparatively untrained musicians it is a quaint, original and somewhat crude expression of the great Christmas tradition.

During the middle of last century many Cornish families migrated to Australia, and as new communities were formed, there also the CORNISH CAROL appeared as a bond between the old and the new. In this collection a few only of those that I have known for sixty years have been selected; in some instances the phrasing and harmony have been revised, care being taken to retain as much as possible the idiom of CORNISH CAROLS.

Some of the airs are very beautiful and are capable of great musical expression.

My own compositions extend over a period of fifty years, and are included for what they are worth in the hope that they may help to a revival of CORNISH CAROL singing and therefore make the book worth while.

3
Rock and desert can't impede,
On they press, no aid they need;
Day and night a guide to them,
Is the star of Bethlehem.

4
Now the holy wise men meet
At the royal infant's feet;
Offerings rich are made by them,
To the star of Bethlehem.

5
Joyful let us quickly rise,
Still the signal's in the skies;
David's rod of Jesse's stem,
Is the star of Bethlehem.

2 Happy all who hear the message
Of His coming from above,
Happier still who hail His coming,
And with praises greet His love,
Blessed Saviour, Christ most Holy,
In a manger Thou didst rest,
Canst Thou stoop again yet lower,
And abide within my breast.

3 And to those who never listened,
To the message of Thy birth,
Who have winter, but no Christmas
Bringing them Thy peace on earth.

By all people, in each home,
Be there heard the Christmas Anthem
Praise to God the Christ has come.
